Case No.: 3:25-cv-04108-MMC

DEFENDANT'S THIRD ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CONSIDER WHETHER ANOTHER
PARTY'S MATERIAL SHOULD BE SEALED

Judge: Hon. Maxine M. Chesney

Pursuant to Civil Local Rules 7-11 and 79-5(f), Defendant Epic Systems Corporation (“Epic”) submits this administrative motion to consider whether another party’s material should be sealed (“Third Administrative Motion”), filed in connection with Defendant’s Reply in Support of its Motion to Transfer Venue to the Western District of Wisconsin Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a) (“Motion to Transfer Venue Reply”). The portions of documents Epic seeks to temporarily file under seal are listed below:

| Document | Corresponding Page and Line Number(s) |
|--------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Motion to Transfer Reply | Page 4, Line 12 |
| Motion to Transfer Reply | Page 4, Line 15 |

| Motion to Transfer Reply | Page 8, Fn. 7 |

Epic brings this Third Administrative Motion to seal solely because it is required under the Civil Local Rules. See Civil L.R. 79-5(f). As detailed in Epic’s Motion to Unseal (Dkt. No. 25), Epic seeks the unsealing of the customer-identifying information¹ that Magistrate Judge Kim previously permitted to be filed in redacted form. (See Dkt. No. 5 at 1.) This information should not be redacted as CureIS has failed to establish compelling reasons supporting redaction, including because (i) CureIS itself affirmatively publicly disclosed the existence of customer relationships for many years on its own website and elsewhere to market its products and services (Dkt. No. 25 at 7-8), and (ii) CureIS has not advanced particularized reasons supported

¹ As explained in Epic’s Motion to Unseal, Epic does not contest sealing of the names of non-party employees. (Dkt. No. 25 at 4 n.3.)

1 by facts sufficient to meet its burden to justify sealing (id. at 8-12). In addition, there is a strong
2 public interest in this matter that would be best served by disclosing the names of the customers
3 at the center of CureIS's allegations so that the public can assess the veracity of each party's
4 allegations and arguments (id. at 12-13). Epic's Motion to Unseal is currently noticed to be
5 heard on August 8, 2025 at 9:00 a.m.

6 Nonetheless, given that Magistrate Judge Kim's order currently remains in place, Epic
7 provisionally files portions of its Motion to Transfer Venue Reply under seal because they reflect
8 information regarding the same customers covered by that order.
